

Call for Annual State Award Nominations

In every community across Indiana, we come into contact with some very wonderful teachers, parents, volunteers and service providers who help us in our pursuit to raise and educate students with learning disabilities and attention deficit disorders. Please consider honoring someone who has been an inspiration to you for his or her dedication and commitment to making a difference in the lives of Indiana students and/or young adults with learning disabilities!

Award Categories

- Teacher of the Year Award: This award recognizes an outstanding Indiana teacher whose; 1) work demonstrates his or her ability to provide a creative and positive classroom learning experience that addresses the unique educational needs, strengths and lifelong potential of students with LD/ADHD; 2) often goes above and beyond what is normally expected in his or her profession; and 3) who serves as a role model and inspiration to his or her colleagues. The recipient of this award may be a teacher in the special education or regular education field who works in a public or private school or college.
